Horetown Stables, Horetown, Foulksmills, Co. Wexford

Kehoe & Assoc. is proud to present to the market Horetown Residence & Stables. This immaculate New England Style detached, two-storey over basement home features three bedrooms and is in excellent condition. Constructed in 2006 by the current owners, the design captures authenticity and traditional characteristics while incorporating modern amenities. The inviting driveway, which hints at the property's unique character, leads to the main house, an adaptable detached studio, the stable yard quarters with 12 stables, tack room, workshop, indoor arena, and pony shed.

As you enter the main house, you'll be impressed by the spacious living areas and unique layout, characterised by charming stain glass and multiple staircases. On the main level, you'll find a welcoming hallway filled with natural light and a spacious double bedroom with an ensuite.

The grand living room is raised above the front hallway, which features triple aspect windows overlooking the rolling countryside hills and has the benefit of direct access to the south facing raised decking. With its high vaulted ceiling and exquisite traditional marble fireplace, this room evokes the charm of majestic old world estates. A few steps descend to an area ideal for cocktail preparation and storage, which leads through stain glass double doors into the beautifully crafted kitchen and flows to the family room which is also connecting to the raised decking area. The rolling countryside hills are exquisite and extend for miles.

Next to the kitchen is a substantial utility room and a w.c. / boot room. The first floor accommodates two additional bedrooms, including a master suite with a walk-in dressing room, ensuite and large picture windows offering superb views, and a family bathroom. The basement, reached via stairs from the utility, includes an internal hallway with ample space for a wine cellar or further pantry storage leading to a large workshop/office, with a separate side entrance. This space has a wide range of potential uses including separate living quarters, service business, games room or indeed a home office.

The exterior is equally impressive, with the high-quality grass land paddock situated at the front of the house amid mature trees and natural boundaries, enhancing the property's accessibility and tranquil seclusion.
