137 The Faythe, Wexford Y35 V0A2,

Situated in the heart of the historic Faythe district, No. 137 presents a beautifully renovated two-bedroom terraced residence extending to c. 55 sq.m. Originally constructed in 1935, the property underwent an architectural designed comprehensive refurbishment in 2012, including complete rewiring, replumbing and modernisation throughout, creating a beautiful home that successfully blends period character with contemporary comfort.

The Faythe, once the centre of Wexford's thriving sea-faring community, remains one of the town's most established and desirable residential neighbourhoods. Rich in heritage and community spirit, it continues to offer a unique sense of place just moments from the vibrant town centre.

Accommodation is thoughtfully laid out over two floors. The ground floor comprises a bright open-plan living, kitchen and dining area, creating a welcoming and practical space for modern living. French doors open directly onto a private courtyard, enclosed by attractive old stone walls, providing a charming and low-maintenance outdoor retreat.

Upstairs, there are two well-proportioned bedrooms and a spacious family bathroom featuring both a bath and separate shower. A Stira staircase from the principal bedroom provides access to the attic, offering valuable additional storage.

The property benefits from triple-glazed windows to the front, gas-fired central heating with a combi boiler, and the peace of mind that comes with its extensive renovation works. Residential street parking permits are available for residents.

Location is a key feature of this home. Wexford's Main Street, with its excellent selection of shops, one minute walk to local supermarket, GP, pharmacy, pubs and also proximity to the scenic and peaceful Rocks walking area. Cafés, restaurants, and cultural amenities, are within a short walk of approximately 600 metres. The picturesque Quays, Wexford Opera House, schools, sporting facilities and waterfront amenities are all easily accessible on foot.

Excellent transport connections are available nearby. Bus stops on The Faythe and Trinity Street are within a few minutes' walk, providing access to local Wexford Bus services as well as Bus Éireann routes to Dublin, Waterford, Gorey and surrounding areas. The town's railway station, Wexford O'Hanrahan Railway Station, is approximately 1.5 km away and provides regular rail services along the Dublin–Rosslare line.

For commuters, the property enjoys convenient access to both the N25 and N11 road networks, connecting Wexford with Waterford, New Ross, Gorey, Wicklow and Dublin. The N25 can be reached within minutes, while the N11/M11 corridor provides an efficient route to the capital and beyond.

Wexford is renowned for its spectacular coastline, and several beautiful beaches are within easy reach. Curracloe Beach, one of Ireland's finest Blue Flag beaches, is approximately 12 km away, while Rosslare Strand and Curracloe Beach offer miles of sandy shoreline and coastal walks within a short drive.

No. 137 The Faythe represents an excellent opportunity to acquire a character-filled home in one of Wexford Town's most historic and convenient locations. Combining modern upgrades, outdoor space, strong transport links and a highly walkable setting, this property will appeal to first-time buyers, downsizers, investors and those seeking a charming town residence close to all amenities.
