THE BULLRING

LIFE IN WEXFORD CAN BE CALM, PEACEFUL, THRILLING OR LUXURIOUS –
WHATEVER YOU WANT IT TO BE, WEXFORD'S GOT IT.

From the A-rated homes at The Paddocks, there is a footpath to take you to Wexford Main Street where a host of boutique shopping, restaurants, a range of seasonal festivals and home of an array of Arts & Theatre at the National Opera House, all awaits – a town bus service offering frequent daily loops to carry you, and your shopping, home.

There's a vibrant restaurant and café culture in Wexford with everything from fine dining, to gastro pubs, seafood restaurants and more family-friendly places to eat. The quality is excellent with many eateries taking pride in delicious produce from local farmers and artisan producers. After you've tasted the delighted, you can settle in for a pint of one of many homegrown brews, get involved in a relaxed traditional music session or find a bar with live music to enjoy into the early hours of the morning!

RACECOURSE

An aerial photograph of a coastal landscape at sunset. In the foreground, a lighthouse with a white base and a black band stands on a rocky outcrop. The sea is dark blue with white foam from the waves. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a golden glow across the sky and reflecting on the water. The background shows a flat, green landscape with some buildings and a distant coastline.
